ALOHA FROM YOUR COMMODORE!

Good Day Mates! Well, the first thing to be mentioned is the Beach Fish BBQ held on Sunday, April 15th at Pavilion #3 in Old Industrial Park. This was a fun fundraiser for KKYC! A few people did a whole lot in order to make the event successful for all!

Chefs:

John Wilson & Herb Jensen
The fish was cooked perfect!

Salad & Pupu Chefs:

Trish Wilson & Barbara Jensen
I could have gone home happy just eating the salmon and ahi pupus or the ceviche dip.

Pastry Chef:

Cathy Barrett made a chocolate mousse that was so rich that everyone took a pass on Emil's S'mores over a wood fire.

Fish Procurer and Ice Sculpturer:

Robin Barrett

P.S. The sculpture is a sailfish pointing to the left (not a man with a lot of hair and a big nose)!

As a perfect ending to a perfect day, this was the sunset we were treated to:

Well attended, well planned and great food! Well worth the row in to shore.

Next to be mentioned I suppose is the kitchen remodeling going on. The members and the crew that put on our dinners held up pretty well. When will it be completed? I have not been advised of an approximate date for completion from Kona by the Sea, but I have heard that a new ice maker is to be installed in the new Galley.

How about the Birthdays we just celebrated. Well, Ladies go first. It was Cathy Barrett's 65th birthday and she's never looked better! She also made a decadent cake that we all enjoyed. Yum yum! Carol Greenwell is celebrating her B-Day on May 6.

Next are the boys, Don Eller and Lee Johnson. Lee just turned 80 years young. Don is too young to mention his age, but he always gets carded at places serving liquor. Now here is the highlighted event of the evening: The crew had them sing happy birthday to themselves prior to everyone singing happy birthday to them. Reason? We all wanted to hear that baritone voice of Lee's, but I must admit that Cathy's and Don singing backup was not all that bad. Fun evening!

The Yacht Club directories that have not been picked up at dinners will be mailed out in May by Chairman Mike Cron. Also badges and membership cards that have not been picked up will be mailed out. Mahalo, Mike.

I hope the Month of May has as many guests as April. It just makes everything better!

Aloha and Fair Winds to all of you ...
