

Official Newsletter of the Keauhou-Kona Yacht Club

OCTOBER, 2018

Good Day Shipmates,
I hope this note finds you all well and in good spirits.

As most of you know, our Yacht Club will be closed October 12th due to Ironman events in the area. This year for the first time, the KKYC Ocean Center division will be involved in Ironman! We need 16 people to fill for our four-hour shift from 7am to 11am. Fourteen members have stepped up already, so only two more to go!

Our job will be to help the participants to retrieve their bags as they leave the swim course. This will be for a couple of hours, then we will go to the nearby massage area, set up forty tables and put pre-cut plastic sheets on them.

All participants will be given an Ironman shirt and are invited to attend the Mahalo Party on Monday night at the King Kamehameha Hotel. Food is always good, with free beer from the Kona Brewery and opportunities to win prizes. And for participating, the KYC Ocean Center will receive a $500 donation! It should be fun!

Next up, the HALLOWEEN party! This will be held at our Friday October 26 Dinner. Start figuring out what your costume will be NOW.

Fred Doshier has agreed to head-up the Nominating Committee for the year 2019. If asked, this will be your chance to step-up and as a Board member help guide the Yacht Club to a safe harbor. You are never too new or too old a Club member to join the effort. So don't be shy! Call or email Fred at 808-331-1806; fdosher@hawaii.rr.com.

We have a new manager at Kona By The Sea. His name is Chuck Okazaki. Chuck and I have known each other since I came to Hawaii and he managed Kona Reef condos. You couldn't ask for a nicer person to work with! I will ask Chuck and his wife to come to one of our dinners this month so that all members present can meet him.

Aloha and Fair Winds to all of you
